DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Narrative Communications (www.narrative.com, published date 5/13/1998, retrieved from Internet Wayback Machine <<http://web.archive.org>> on 8/11/2003).
3. As per independent Claim 1, Narrative Communications discloses a method of interactive advertising, comprising: displaying a Web page having an ad space; detecting a user interaction with said ad space; and in response to said interaction, obtaining purchasing data in only said ad space (www.narrative.com).
4. As per independent Claims 2, 48, and 51, Narrative Communications discloses an interactive advertising support method (element server, computer program product) comprising: (a processor, and a memory under control of said processor;) providing to a web client an interactive element obtained from an element server; providing at said element server a companion element corresponding to said interactive element; responding to a distant target file requirement of said interactive element by sending to said companion element a distant file request relating to a distant target file address on a distant server distinct from said element server; responding, at said companion element, to said distant file request, by interacting with said distant server in accordance with said distant file request (www.narrative.com).

5. As per Claims 3, 49, and 52, Narrative Communications discloses when said distant file request is a distant target file delivery request: said distant target file address indicates a distant target file of said distant server; and said companion element: responds to said distant target file delivery request by obtaining said distant target file from said distant server, stores said distant target file at said element server as a local target file, and provides said local target file to said interactive element in satisfaction of said distant target file delivery request (www.narrative.com).
6. As per Claims 4, 50, and 53, Narrative Communications discloses where said distant file request is a distant target file transmit request: said distant target file address indicates a distant target file destination address of said distant server; said interactive element provides said distant target file to said companion element; and said companion element responds to said distant target file transmit request by sending said distant target file to said distant target file destination address (www.narrative.com).
7. As per Claim 5, Narrative Communications discloses said web client being provided with a primary target file from a website system; said web client displaying for a user an original web page based on said primary target file; said primary target file including a reference to an ad space file of a distributor system; said ad space file including a reference to said interactive element; said interactive element defining an advertising program of an ad space of said primary target file; and said distant file server defining a vendor system of a vendor (www.narrative.com).

8. As per Claim 6, Narrative Communications discloses wherein: said advertising program places information about products of said vendor directly in said ad space; and said advertising program displays a user activatable area for browsing said products through said ad space without leaving said original web page (www.narrative.com).
9. As per Claim 7, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said advertising program displays a user activatable area for enabling said user to purchase a selected one of said products of said vendor without leaving said original web display (www.narrative.com).
10. As per Claim 8, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said advertising program includes a shopping cart capability allowing said user to select a plurality of said products and then purchase them all at one time without leaving said original web page (www.narrative.com).
11. As per Claim 9, Narrative Communications discloses wherein: said advertising program initially displays in said ad space a first presentation selected from the set consisting of images, animations, and text; said advertising program responds to a first interaction of said user with said ad space by displaying a second presentation (www.narrative.com).
12. As per Claim 10, Narrative Communications discloses wherein an initial program load for said advertising program is performed so as to load a highest priority resource prior to loading, in a low priority thread, a remainder of resources required by said advertising program (www.narrative.com).
13. As per Claim 11, Narrative Communications discloses making a detection of an environment of said web client prior to said step of providing to said web client said interactive element (www.narrative.com).

14. As per Claim 12, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said detection of said environment includes determining one or more of: the kind of software for said web client; the kind of hardware on which said web client is running; and the connection speed between the element server and the web client (www.narrative.com).
15. As per Claim 13, Narrative Communications discloses selecting said interactive element based on said determination of said environment (www.narrative.com).
16. As per Claim 14, Narrative Communications discloses making a determination of a context of said original web page based on said primary target file; and selecting content for said interactive element based on said determination of said context of said original web page (www.narrative.com).
17. As per Claim 15, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said advertising program provides a presentation emulating a website of said vendor (www.narrative.com).
18. As per Claim 16, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said interactive element sends to said companion element a distant files request for a multimedia file, and provides the contents of said multimedia file through said ad space (www.narrative.com).
19. As per Claim 17, Narrative Communications discloses a step of said vendor updating said distant target file (www.narrative.com).
20. As per Claim 18, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said updating is performed automatically from said vendor system at a predetermined interval (www.narrative.com).

Art Unit: 3629

21. As per Claim 19, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said distant target file is an electronic product of said vendor and is delivered to said user via said companion element and said interactive element (www.narrative.com).
22. As per Claim 20, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said electronic product of said vendor is one or more of: a software product, a written product, and a multimedia product (www.narrative.com).
23. As per Claim 21, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said advertising program constitutes a registration engine for gathering user subscriptions (www.narrative.com).
24. As per Claim 22, Narrative Communications discloses wherein content for display by said interactive element is selected based on information about said user (www.narrative.com).
25. As per Claim 23, Narrative Communications discloses wherein information about said user is obtained from a cookie (www.narrative.com).
26. As per Claim 24, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said information about said user is obtained from an ad tracking database (www.narrative.com).
27. As per Claim 25, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said ad tracking database is provided by said distributor system (www.narrative.com).
28. As per Claim 26, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said ad tracking database is provided by said vendor system (www.narrative.com).
29. As per Claim 27, Narrative Communications discloses providing to said user a price quote for a customized one of said products (www.narrative.com).

30. As per Claim 28, Narrative Communications discloses selecting content for said interactive element to display based on geographical information pertaining to said user (www.narrative.com).
31. As per Claim 29, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said interactive element is provided with information that is continually updated (www.narrative.com).
32. As per Claim 30, Narrative Communications discloses said interactive element providing a transaction capability for creating a transaction based on a present value of said information that is continually updated (www.narrative.com).
33. As per Claim 31, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said interactive element includes a user activatable area for setting an alert based on a present value of said information that is continually updated (www.narrative.com).
34. As per Claim 32, Narrative Communications discloses triggering said alert to create said transaction (www.narrative.com).
35. As per Claim 33, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said interactive element is structured to present to said user a live gaming interface (www.narrative.com).
36. As per Claim 34, Narrative Communications discloses wherein user interactions with said interactive element are used as an input to an ad tracking database storing information relating to said user (www.narrative.com).
37. As per Claim 35, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said ad tracking database stores includes shipping and purchasing information pertaining to said user, and said shipping and purchasing information is accessible by interactive elements pertaining to products from a plurality of vendors (www.narrative.com).

38. As per Claim 36, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said ad space includes a user activatable area for a user to initiate an operation for activating said interactive element in an independent window (www.narrative.com).
39. As per Claim 37, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said original web page includes a plurality of ad spaces with corresponding interactive elements (www.narrative.com).
40. As per Claim 38, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said corresponding interactive elements for said plurality of ad spaces are selected by said user (www.narrative.com).
41. As per Claim 39, Narrative Communications discloses wherein said advertising program displays a survey for gathering feedback from said user and stores a user response to said survey in an ad tracking database without leaving said original web page (www.narrative.com).
42. As per Claim 40, Narrative Communications discloses storing information obtained about said user through said interactive element in an ad tracking database, and sending advertising information to said user via one or more of e-mail, telephone calls, faxes, and mail (www.narrative.com).
43. As per Claim 41, Narrative Communications discloses storing information obtained about said user through said interactive element in an ad tracking database, said information including environment information relating to said user, wherein said environment information includes one or more of: connection bandwidth, hardware address, hardware platform, software environment, operating system, cookie data, data acquired from

Conclusion

63. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

64. The following patents are cited to further show the state of the art with respect to  in general:

U.S. Pat. No. 6,393,407 to Middleton, III et al.

Middleton discloses a system wherein, in connection with the display of advertising within Web pages, an applet is downloaded to the user's Web browser to track the user's interactions with a Web page. Tracked user interactions include mouse cursor position, time displayed on page, time of mouse cursor hovering over the advertisement etc. The applet forwards logged information from the client to a remote server controlled by the advertiser or rating service at an appropriate time.

65. The following foreign patent is cited to show the best foreign prior art found by the examiner:

PCT Pat. No. WO 200106441 A2 to Kliger et al.

Kliger discloses a dynamic visual representation provision of customizable advertisement, involves running applet program at client computer to execute program logic for constructing visual representation of customizable advertisement.

66. Additional prior art has been referenced on the attached PTO-892 form, and the Examiner suggests the applicant review these documents before submitting any amendments.
